

Business Intelligence SQL Server DBA

Raining Virtue Solutions, Inc. is a consulting, integration and managed services firm comprised of highly motivated and experienced business and information technology professionals committed to assisting clients in enhancing business operations by taking full advantage of today's advanced technology. Technology should be driven by the requirements of a client's business to improve customer service, operational effectiveness and profitability. The firm takes great pride in identifying and selecting only the area's most professional software consultants who believe in the power of a team approach and who are focused on exceeding client expectations.

Summary:

Raining Virtue Solutions is accepting applications for a Business Intelligence SQL Server DBA for immediate contract to permanent positions for a Seattle based client. The client is converting its Business Intelligence architecture over to utilize SQL Server 2005 Business Intelligence architecture. Being the first of many years of restructuring the Business Intelligence platform, there is many years of exciting work using the latest and greatest Business Intelligence tools.

Qualifications:

- Demonstrate advanced understanding of enterprise Business Intelligence architecture and framework design.
- Demonstrate advanced understanding in industry standards Data Warehouse design and implementation.
- Demonstrate advanced understanding of change and release management practices around the Business Intelligence software development practice.
- Demonstrate exceptional communication skills and excitement consulting with and solving customer needs.
- Demonstrate ability to thrive in fast-paced environment.
- 5+ years of verified "hands on" Business Intelligence experience using Microsoft's development suite of tools.

Requirements:

- SQL Server 2005, Reporting Services, Integration Services, Analysis Services

Engagement Details:

- 40 hrs per week
- On-Site required
- Compensation – DOE
- All applicants must be currently authorized to work in the United States.