

e-Commerce SQL Server DBA

Raining Virtue Solutions, Inc. is a consulting, integration and managed services firm comprised of highly motivated and experienced business and information technology professionals committed to assisting clients in enhancing business operations by taking full advantage of today's advanced technology. Technology should be driven by the requirements of a client's business to improve customer service, operational effectiveness and profitability. The firm takes great pride in identifying and selecting only the area's most professional software consultants who believe in the power of a team approach and who are focused on exceeding client expectations.

Summary:

Raining Virtue Solutions is accepting applications for an e-Commerce SQL Server DBA for an immediate contract to permanent position for a Bellevue/Eastside based client. The client is releasing a state-of-the-art new e-commerce engine to the public in the next couple months and ramping up the team for the next round of releases. If you want to be a part of a true Enterprise e-Commerce team, this is an exciting opportunity.

Qualifications:

- Demonstrate advanced understanding in industry standards e-commerce design and implementation.
- Demonstrate advanced understanding of best practice installation, configuration and optimization of e-commerce installations.
- Demonstrate advanced understanding of clustering and replication strategies.
- Demonstrate ability to thrive in fast-paced environment.
- 5+ years of verified "hands on" e-commerce DBA experience using Microsoft's suite of tools.

Requirements:

- SQL Server 2005, T-SQL

Engagement Details:

- 40 hrs per week
- Compensation – DOE
- All applicants must be currently authorized to work in the United States.

RAINING VIRTUE
S O L U T I O N S